

Anderson Speech Consultants is currently seeking a full time Art Therapist. We provide a collaborative work environment with job flexibility and opportunities for career development. If you are passionate about your career, innovative, and think "outside the box" then this is the position for you.

Company Info

At Anderson Speech Consultants we believe in a collaborative approach to provide caring, innovative, and creative therapy services for people of all ages and places, including locally, across Canada, and internationally. We build upon our clients' strengths to create an individualized treatment plan. Our proven approach is far from one-size fits all.

In addition to the high quality service we provide in our clinic, we use advanced technology to conduct online therapy sessions, reaching clients in their most convenient location.

Company Website: www.andersonspeech.ca

Key Responsibilities

Start Date: Part Time work over the summer

Full time starting September 2018

We are looking for an art therapist to lead one-on-one and group art programs for First Nation children in remote communities across Northern Ontario.

- Strong interest in working with First Nation children
- Ability to work with clients living in remote areas using telepractice technology
- Available for possible onsite visits to First Nation Communities
- Respects and follows confidentiality of client information and situations
- Work closely with children, as well as parents, caregivers, teachers and other support workers
- Write clear and concise reports and progress notes
- Comfortable and open to using a wide variety of art media materials
- Flexible to work from home (to discuss further)

Qualifications

Registered member with the Canadian Art Therapy Association

Skilled in providing individual and group therapy sessions

Able to adapt treatment approach to the needs of clients, including clients of different cultural backgrounds

Have a background knowledge in Psychology, Social Work, and/or Counselling.

Have experience working with children with mental health concerns, trauma, stress/anxiety.

Able to work well as part of an interdisciplinary team including Speech-Language Pathologists, Communicative Disorders Assistants, Psychologists, Nurses, Rehabilitation Therapy Assistants.

Possess the flexibility and time-management skills necessary to manage an ever-changing caseload

Able to creatively problem-solve to provide treatment programs catered to individual clients and settings (e.g. online)

Comfortable with technology, including telepractice/video conferencing technology

Strong computer skills, especially in Word, Excel, Powerpoint, and Google Drive

Able to travel to Northern First Nations Communities, if needed

Successful Criminal Record Check

Deadline for Application: June 21 , 2018

Please email your cover letter and resume.

We thank you for your interest but only selected candidates will be contacted for an interview.

Job Types: Full-time, Part-time