Your resume is a match.

Expressive Art Program Instructor

Part -time (6 hours/week)

The Aphasia Institute requires an outgoing, expressive art program instructor to support the agency's painting program. The Institute is a not-for-profit organization with a warm, friendly atmosphere and a commitment to teamwork.

The Aphasia Institute is a partnership of individuals with aphasia, their families, volunteers, staff and supporters who are dedicated to reducing language barriers to full-life participation at local, provincial, national and international levels. We aim to give hope and make a difference to the quality of life and well-being of individuals with aphasia and their families, wherever they may be. We aspire to change society so that communicative access is universally accepted for all those affected by aphasia. We hope to inspire others to do the same.

Responsibilities

The Art Instructor at the Aphasia Institute works under the supervision of the Manager, Client Services. The Art Instructor will work within the framework of an existing group program structure and purchase art supplies within budget.

Qualifications/Experience

- Experience in visual arts
- Experience painting with acrylics and drawing with pencil. Knowledge of how to mix colours and understand colour theory
- Strong people skills, experience with an older population and working with people with disability
- Ability to value creative process vs product
  - Value art as a means of expression (in place of speech)

The Aphasia Institute welcomes and encourages applications from people with disabilities. Accommodations are available on request for candidates taking part in all aspects of the selection process.

We strongly encourage applications from women and men, people from racialized communities, visible minorities, persons with disabilities, aboriginal people and people who identify themselves as LGBT. We seek to attract and retain individuals who will work together to create and sustain a vibrant, healthy, safe and caring community.

While we thank all candidates for their interest, only those selected for an interview will be contacted. We regret we are unable to accept telephone inquiries.
